Donald (Trey) Cole, III, MD
Family Medicine

"I truly enjoy practicing Family Medicine, and strive to provide open access to patient-centered, high quality care. I intend to be there when you need me, and appreciate that you entrust me to be your family doctor."

Amanda Y. Rowe, APRN, MSN, FNP-C
Family Medicine

"I chose a career in medicine because I enjoy helping others feel better. I began my nursing career in the ICU and realized that many of my patients were being admitted for things that could have been prevented. That motivated me to focus more on preventive care and optimizing health. I believe in holistic and patient-centered care. I feel it is important to meet the patient where they are."

Hayan Yacoub, MD
Internal Medicine

"I love to help people and I thrive on solving problems. Thus, becoming a doctor was a natural career choice for me. I believe that it is a great privilege to be trusted by people to take care of their health and well-being. I am very passionate about maintaining this trust. I consider every person I see in my practice as an extension of my own family. I treat and care for them the way I would want my loved ones to be cared for and treated."
